Community Guidelines

Effective Date: March 10, 2026

Automeet is a community built around a shared passion for the automotive world. Whether you are listing a vehicle, selling parts, offering services, or simply connecting with fellow enthusiasts, these guidelines exist to keep Automeet a trustworthy, respectful, and useful space for everyone.

1. Our Core Values

Every member of the Automeet community is expected to uphold the following principles:

- Honesty — Be truthful in your listings, your communications, and your conduct.
- Respect — Treat every other member with courtesy, regardless of background or opinion.
- Accountability — Take ownership of your listings, your messages, and your actions on the platform.
- Safety — Do not engage in conduct that puts others at risk — financially, personally, or otherwise.
- Fairness — Compete and interact in good faith. Do not game listings, manipulate search results, or mislead other users.

2. Listings

2.1 Accuracy and Honesty

Your listings are your reputation on Automeet. Every listing must be a truthful, complete, and current representation of the item or service being offered.

- ✓ Describe the actual condition of the vehicle, part, or service accurately.
- ✓ Include real, unedited photos of the actual item being listed.
- ✓ Disclose known defects, prior accidents, salvage titles, flood damage, or any other material issues.
- ✓ Update or remove listings promptly when an item is no longer available.
- ✓ List items in the correct category (vehicles, parts, or services).

- ✗ Post misleading descriptions, fabricated specifications, or altered photos.
- ✗ List items you do not own or have no authority to list.
- ✗ Use stock photos or photos from other listings as your own.
- ✗ Duplicate the same listing multiple times to increase visibility.
- ✗ Post placeholder or "coming soon" listings with no real content.

2.2 Prohibited Listings

The following items and services may never be listed on Automeet under any circumstance:

- Stolen vehicles, parts, or any item with a removed, altered, or fraudulent VIN or serial number.
- Vehicles or parts with tampered odometers.
- Salvage, flood-damaged, or rebuilt vehicles without full and prominent disclosure.

- Services that require a professional license the poster does not hold.
- Items or services that are illegal under federal, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or local law.
- Weapons, hazardous materials, or any non-automotive items not directly related to the platform's purpose.

- ✓ List a real asking price or clearly indicate if a price is negotiable.
- ✗ Post artificially low prices to attract attention with no intent to honor them.
- ✗ Engage in price manipulation or coordinate pricing with other users.

---

3. Business Accounts

3.1 Representing Your Business

Business accounts carry additional responsibility. Users interacting with a business listing trust that they are dealing with a legitimate operation.

- ✓ Ensure your business name, address, and category accurately reflect your real business.
- ✓ Keep your business information current and up to date.
- ✓ Only post listings that your business legitimately offers.
- ✗ Misrepresent the size, credentials, or nature of your business.
- ✗ Use a business account to post personal listings that do not belong to the business.
- ✗ Create multiple business accounts for the same business to inflate presence on the platform.

3.2 Multiple Businesses

Subscription plans allow management of multiple business accounts. Each account must represent a distinct, real business entity. Creating multiple accounts for the same business, or fictitious businesses, is a violation of these guidelines and our Terms of Service.
